

Funeral Planning for:

Please complete this form to the best of your ability -- not all lines need to be filled in. Upon completion, this form will be placed in your membership folder and will be used by the pastor and family upon your death to assist in funeral planning.

You may want to keep a copy of this form in a safe place, but not in a safety deposit box. You may want to provide a copy to a family member.

Contact the church office if you would like more copies of this form or if you would like to make revisions to your current planning form.

FUNERAL INFORMATION FORM

By preparing a funeral planning guide several things will be accomplished.

- You will have the assurance that a funeral event will occur and it will meet your personal wishes and requests.
- You will be providing guidance to whoever your representative will be and establishing cost guidelines for them.
- You will be clarifying where services and final disposition is preferred, especially important for individuals with multiple places of residency.
- You will be recording your personal history and vital statistical data that only you may know.
